TO THE PUBLIC

CERTAIN that the London and West minster Library, as it is now published, is a well chosen Collection of books fitted to every Class of Readers;—the Proprietors do not enter into its merits in detail; but only request Support while they shall be found deserving of it.

Enabled and prepared by long Experience,—in extensive concerns and dealings as Booksellers in general, and the proper Arrangements for this particular Branch, which Gentles and Son have made,—Subscribers are with Confidence assured, that the Terms of the Library shall be well filled; particularly that no Work of Repute whether new or old shall be withheld; and the Work conducted to their Convenience and Satisfaction.

No. 215, Holborn

CONDITIONS
OF THE
LONDON AND WESTMINSTER CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

- I. Subscribers at per Year 1l. 1s. or Half Year 12s. Quarter 7s. are entitled not only to the use of the Books in the Catalogue, but also to New Books and Pamphlets, including Magazines and Reviews, which shall be added to the Library as soon as published, and entered in a written Catalogue, to be kept open for the Inspection of Subscribers on this First Class, who are to be allowed Four Books at a time.
- II. Subscribers paying per Year 16s. or Half Year 9s. Quarter 5s. will be entitled to the reading of the Books in the printed Catalogue only. A Supplement to the Catalogue shall be printed Annually, reckoning from January, 1797, for the use of Subscribers on this Class, who are to be allowed Two Books at a time.
- III. That one Folio or Quarto shall be reckoned as Two Books in the number to be given to Subscribers : And the Subscribers are not to be served at the Library more than once a day.
- IV. The Subscription Money to be paid at the time of subscribing, and renewed at the expiration, if the Subscription is intended to be continued. Subscribers are to give in their Names and Places of Abode, and to deposit the Value of the Books they take away, if required.
- V. All Subscribers to engage not to lend any Book or Books belonging to this Library, on Penalty of forfeiting their Subscription.

CONDITIONS.

VI. That no Subscriber do keep any New published Volume in Folio or Quarto more than Six Days; an Octavo or Duodecimo more than Four Days, without Permission from the Library, on Penalty of paying for the same.

VII. That so long as a Subscriber shall, through any cause whatsoever, keep any Book or Books in their Hands belonging to the Library, beyond the Time they subscribed for, they shall be deemed Subscribers, and pay accordingly.

VIII. If any Book is wrote in, or the Leaf of a Book (whether blank or printed) torn or damaged while in the custody of a Subscriber, that Book, or, if it belongs to a Set, the Set of Books to be paid for at the Price fixed in the Catalogue.

IX. Subscribers, to prevent delay, are to send a List of Numbers, taken from their Catalogue, of such Books as they want: — As thus, 24, 82, 976, 5075, 5550 &c. and, to avoid Disappointment, it is requested that the List may contain at least Ten or Twelve Numbers, such as the Subscriber may most particularly desire to have, to stand first.

As it is the Resolution of the Proprietors to accommodate their Subscribers with the utmost Regularity, they hope they will readily conform to the above Articles; which will enable them to oblige every one, and readily to fulfil their Engagements.

READERS BY THE SINGLE BOOK are to leave the Value; and to pay at the Rates affixed at the Library.

ATTENDANCE AT THE LIBRARY FROM NINE IN THE MORNING TILL EIGHT AT NIGHT;

And, to prevent Disappointment,
no Books can be changed but within that time.
